Foreword

The pathway of life is not a smooth, straight highway, but a twisted country road. It runs over hills, through valleys, across streams. Sometimes it's a dusty lane with bumps and ruts; sometimes it's a footpath through a cool, shadowed forest.

This old-fashioned highway is not level but drops suddenly in long plunges and then climbs steeply to the sky. The road is not always straight, often it curves sharply---challenging us to guess what is beyond.

The roadway never stays the same; sometimes it's a footpath, or an avenue, or a hallway.

For the student, the hallway of life can be the most rewarding, the most challenging, the most wished-for when left behind.

While you are on this stretch of life's journey, notice where it passes. Glance at those rooms. Those rooms, and what they offer, can make the rest of the way joyful, triumphant, and gay.

The FFA and FHA sponsored the collection of used clothing for Save the Children's Federation.

FHA girls made then modeled their clothing at the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The FHA's main purpose is to make better homemakers and citizens. There are three degrees toward which the members aim. Marilyn Kling and Barb Funk completed the required projects and received their state degrees. In the summer of 1963, Linda Duecker will attend the National FHA Convention at Kansas City, Missouri; Sally Waters and Andrea Wright will attend the state FHA camp at Carrolton, Ohio. The FFA and FHA co-sponsored the following activities: Rag-bag Drive, Used Clothing Drive, and the traditional Sweetheart Dance.

Marita explaining the NHS at the Induction Ceremony.

The National Honor Society is an organization recognizing scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The members are chosen by the faculty from students with at least B averages. For one year they are on probation. They must maintain good grades and good reputations.

In 1963, NHS members served at the All-Sports Banquet and several Booster Club Banquets. They ushered at PTA activities, Commencement, and Baccalaureate.

Each year the NHS assists in the organization of the Scholarship Banquet held in May.

NHS seniors are distinguished at Commencement and Baccalaureate by gold cords.

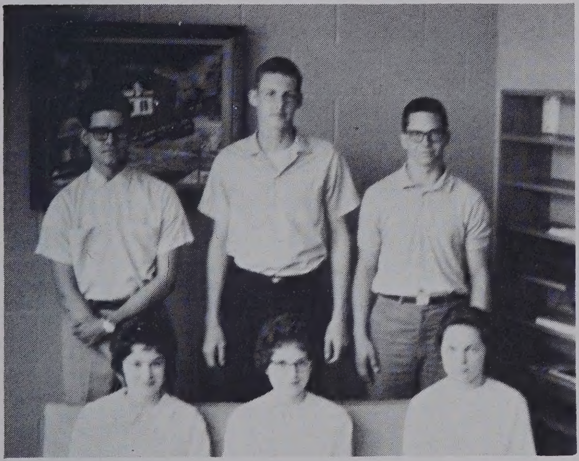
Buckeye Staters

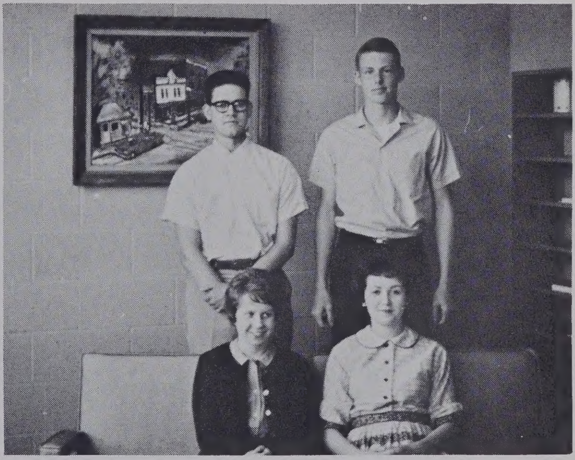


Francie Leiter, Elaine Brubaker, Elizabeth Eglin, Bob Armbruster, Sandy Hyde, Ed Moldenke.

The Buckeye Staters represent the best in the school. They are chosen for their interest in government, character, and academic record.

These students attend a governmental workshop for one week. The American Legion sponsors the boys who attend Ohio University. The American Legion Auxiliary, the girls who attend Capital University.

World Affairs Institute



Linda Wilkens, Kay Funk, Bob Armbruster, Sandy Hyde.

The Lodi Rotary Club sponsored these students who scored highest on a current events test. They went to Cincinnati, accompanied by Mr. Shearer, for a weekend of lectures on the Common Market.

They stayed at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel, toured historical sites, danced, dined, and attended lectures and educational movies.

Student Council

FRONT ROW: L. Brenneman, S. McKenzie, M. Frazier, President; R. Baird, Vice-President; D. Norris, I. Barton. SECOND ROW: L. Wilkens, E. Brubaker, S. Gilbert, Secretary; D. Miller, Treasurer; L. Martin, T. Mason. BACK ROW: K. Kobelt, K. Funai, S. Formanek, L. Mathys, C. Mellott, J. Miller.

The Student Council is the student representative governing body. The members decide matters envolving discipline, instruction, and new rules for the school. This 1963 Council took an active interest in improving themselves. They visited Admiral King High School in Lorraine, Ohio, to see how their Student Council was organized.

In their own school, they sponsored after-game dances, dress-up days; purchased and decorated the school Christmas tree; and printed a school handbook for the 1964 sophomores.

Tennis Club

The Tennis Club was organized the second semester of 1963. It was founded by several students interested in tennis. Mr. David Hoffman acted as the advisor-instructor. The principal achievement of the group was the establishment of tennis as a varsity sport. The Tennis Club was the first and only organization to promote a particular sport.

The 1963 Tennis Club officers were President Randy Baird and Secretary Linda Martinson.

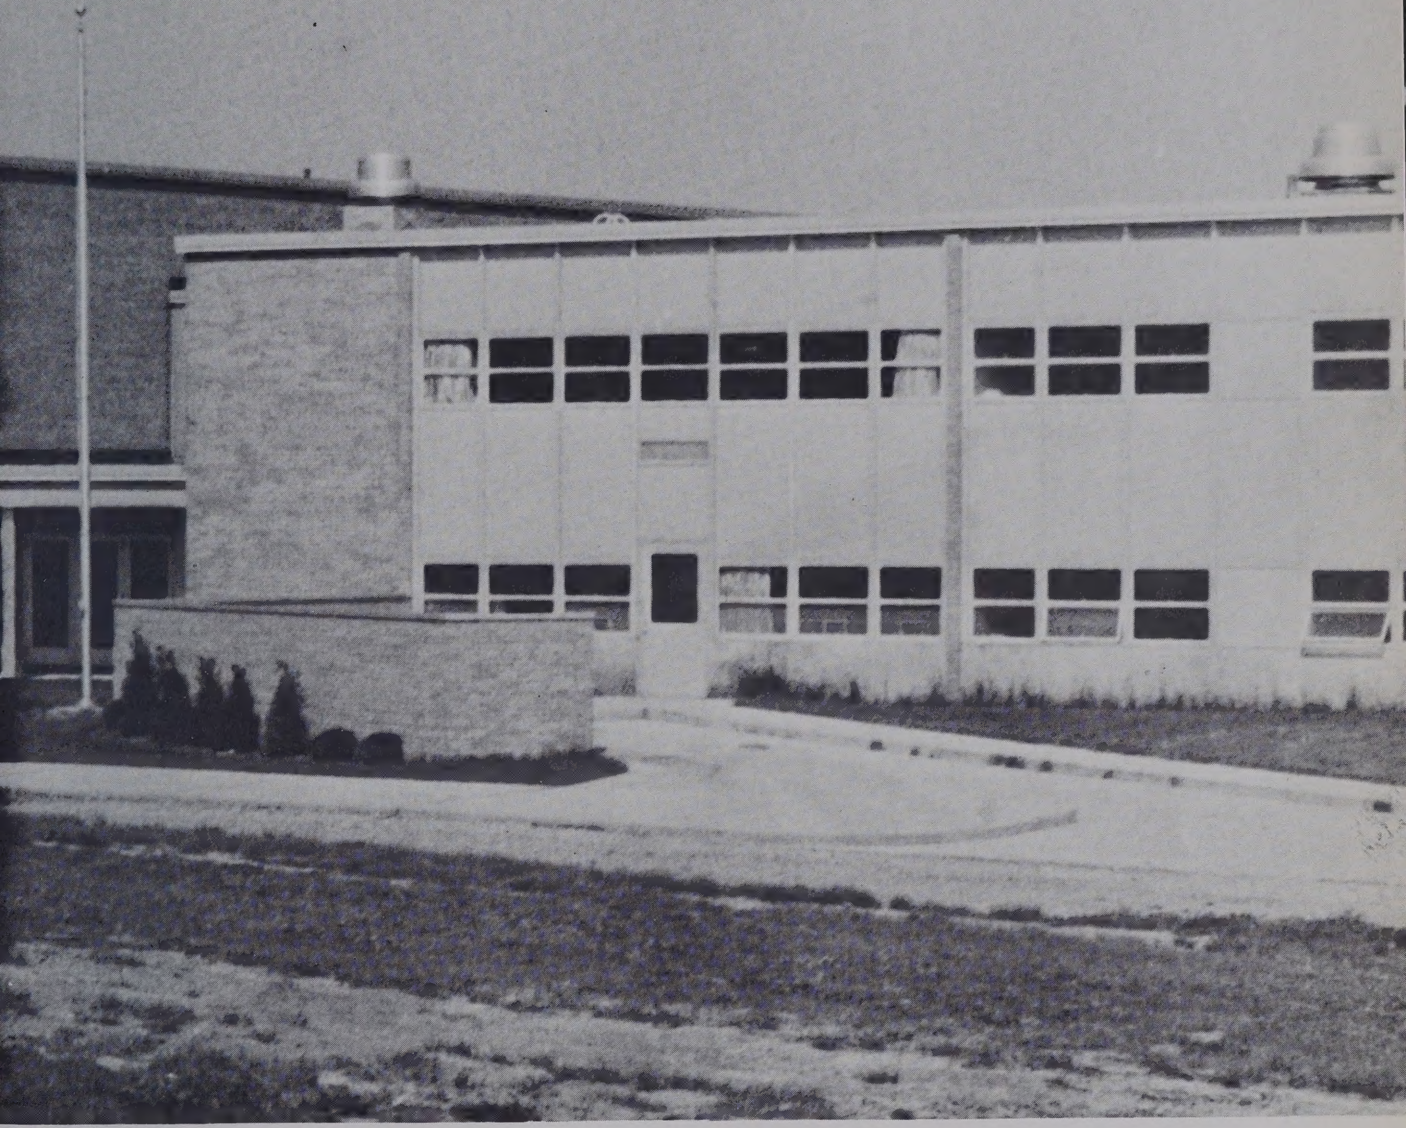
CLOVERLEAF SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Oh, hail to this dear school of mine,
your memories linger in my heart,
Of days gone by and friends far way,
I'll stand by you forever more.



Be strong O' school and do not fail,
    to build the youth of coming years.
I'll cheer and sing for you,
    to win Cloverleaf.
